Montana Privacy Policy

The purpose of this privacy policy is to provide you with a comprehensive description of Our online and offline practices regarding Our Information Practices. You have certain rights regarding the control and use of your personal information. This privacy policy describes those rights as they relate to Our collection and use of your personal information and describes how you can exercise those rights.

Your Right to Know

You have the right to request that We disclose any of the following:

- the categories of personal information We have collected about you
- the categories of sources from which the personal information is collected
- the categories of third parties to whom We disclose personal information
- the specific pieces of personal information We have collected about you

You can do this through a verified consumer request. That process is described below in the section, “Submitting a Verified Consumer Request.”

The following table includes disclosures for the preceding 12 months of: categories of personal information We have collected about consumers, categories of personal information We have disclosed for a business purpose, and categories of third parties with whom We shared the personal information during that period.

We do not sell or share personal information for cross-context behavioral advertising. We do not sell or share sensitive personal information.

We do not have actual knowledge that We collect, process, or sell the personal information of minors under 16 years of age.

Your Right to Request Correction of Inaccurate Personal Information

You have the right to request correction of inaccurate personal information maintained by Us. We may request documentation from you to determine the accuracy of the information. If you provide Us documentation either upon Our request or through your own initiative, that documentation will only be used for the purpose of correcting your personal information and complying with Our recordkeeping requirements. We may deny your request if We have previously denied your same request to correct an alleged inaccuracy in the past 60 days, unless you provide new or additional documentation that the information at issue is inaccurate.

As an alternative to correction, We may delete the inaccurate information if it does not negatively impact you or if you consent to this deletion. We reserve the right to deny this request if allowed under law, or if We determine that the contested information is more likely than not accurate, based on the totality of circumstances. You can submit a correction request through a verified consumer request. That process is described below in the section, "Submitting a Verified Consumer Request."

Your Right to Request Deletion of Your Personal Information

You have the right to request that We delete any of your personal information collected by Us, subject to certain exceptions. You can do this through a verified consumer request. That process is described below in the section, "Submitting a Verified Consumer Request."

There may be scenarios where We deny your deletion request. If that occurs, We will provide you with an explanation as to why We could not delete all or some of your personal information.

How To Exercise Your Rights – Submitting a Verified Consumer Request

You have the right to submit verified consumer requests to know information, to correct information, or for deletion.

The response to a request to know will provide all personal information collected and maintained about you since October 1, 2025, unless doing so proves impossible or would involve disproportionate effort. Please note that We are not required to provide personal information to you more than once in a 12-month period. We cannot respond to your request or provide you with personal information if We cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request. We will only use personal information provided in a verifiable consumer request to verify the requestor's identity or authority to make the request. To best identify a requestor's identity, We recommend supplying a minimum of three pieces of personally identifiable information, along with the timeframe of when you shared information with Onity Group Inc., the method in which you shared the information, and the nature or purpose of information sharing. Please also clearly state which right you intend to exercise.

You can submit a request by calling Us toll free at 1-800-449-8767. You may also submit a request by writing to Us at the following contact information:

If you submit a request that is not through one of these designated methods or is deficient in some manner unrelated to verification, We will treat it as if it had been submitted in accordance with Our designated methods or We will provide you with information on how to submit the request or remedy any deficiencies.

Your request will be verified by matching the information you provide to information that We have collected.

Once We receive your verifiable consumer request, We will respond to your request within 45 calendar days, if We are able to verify your identity. Requests for deletion will require a separate confirmation that you want your information deleted.

Please note that, in responding to your request, We are not permitted to disclose or provide you with your Social Security number, driver's license number or other government-issued identification number, financial account number, any health insurance or medical identification number, an account password, security questions and answers, or unique biometric data generated from measurements or technical analysis of human characteristics. However, We will inform you with sufficient particularity that We have collected the type of information without disclosing the actual data.

Requests to Know or Delete for Child Under the Age of 13: We do not knowingly collect information of minors under the age of 13.

Using an Authorized Agent to Submit a Request

Only you, or a natural person or a business entity registered with the Secretary of State to conduct business in Montana that you have authorized to act on your behalf, may make a verifiable consumer request related to your personal information. You may also make a verifiable consumer request on behalf of your minor child. If you use an authorized agent, you may provide a power of attorney executed pursuant to Montana Probate Code sections. If a power of attorney that meets those provisions is not submitted, you will be required to provide the authorized agent signed permission to submit a request, verify your identity directly with Us, and directly confirm with Us that you provided the authorized agent permission to submit the request.

If you're an authorized agent making a request you must email Us at digitalmedia@onitygroup.com and:

1. Provide the power of attorney provided to you by the consumer
2. Provide proof of signed permission along with a copy of your ID and have the consumer e-mail Us at this same address to directly confirm with Us that they provided you permission to submit the request.

Opt-Out Preference Signals

Some website browsers have an "opt-out preference signal" feature that lets you tell other website and businesses that you do not want to have your online activities tracked. No uniform technology standard for recognizing and implementing opt-out preference signals has been finalized. We do not currently respond to a browser's opt-out preference signal. We are not aware of, and do not knowingly allow such third parties to track your activity over time on the website.

Your Right to Non-Discrimination for the Exercise of a Privacy Right

We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your MTCDPA rights. Unless permitted by the MTCDPA, We will not:

- Deny you goods or services.
- Charge you different prices or rates for goods or services, including through granting discounts or other benefits, or imposing penalties.
- Provide you a different level or quality of goods or services.
- Suggest that you may receive a different price or rate for goods or services or a different level or quality of goods or services.

Changes to Our Privacy Notice

We reserve the right to amend this privacy notice at our discretion and at any time. When We make changes to this privacy notice, We will post the updated notice on the Website and update the notice's effective date. Your continued use of Our websites following the posting of changes constitutes your acceptance of such changes.
